Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As our new District President is installed this weekend, we come together as one through the gift of prayer and invite you to offer these petitions as part of the prayers of the church this Sunday.

Almighty Father, You command Your church to proclaim the message of truth and grace to the ends of the earth. Bless the Southeastern District and the work we do in Your name. We pray that you would provide workers for Your kingdom, the resources needed for every mission station to thrive, joy and strength for every worker in their serving, and the opportunity to grow and expand Your kingdom through the witness and confession of the church. We place our hope and trust in You, for You are able to do immeasurably more than we can imagine or think, and so to You be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
